

manerium dictus dominus rex tradidit cuidam Bernardo de Sancto Walerico, quem Godefridus abbas de Eyngesham sepius conuenit coram rege de iure suo, sed nichil profecit. Optulit ei Bernardus homagium, sed recusante abbate Godefrido, Robertus secundus Lincolniensis episcopus suscepit illud, saluo iure abbatis & conuentus de Eyngesham: defuncto illo Godefrido successit ei quidam abbas, Robertus nomine, qui dictum Bernardum implacitauit per breue de recto in curia eiusdem [sic] Willelmi tunc Lincolniensis episcopi sed episcopo ante finem placiti defuncto, abbas Robertus in curia regis Iohannis placitauit, & electi sunt duodecim homines legales de vineto [sic], quibus ad curiam apud Suthwike¹ conductis & pro dicto manerio iuramentum prestare paratis, suspense querele omnes usque ad redditum [sic] regis de transmarinis partibus. Abbas Robertus cito postea migravit ad dominum; successit ei abbas Adam, qui per breue de recto in ius uocauit Thomam de Sancto Walerico in curia domini Lincolniensis episcopi, & cum iam comparere oporteret, turbacio regni exorta est per aduentum Lodewyci in Angliam & siluerunt leges in arma. Thoma quoque non longe postea defuncto, translata est per filiam suam hereditas ad Robertum Comitem de Brus², quem per litteras regias in cur[iam] regis in ius tractum, cum iustitiarii Oxon[iam] de[uen]issent, & iuratores electi essent presentes, diesque instaret [in quo res³] ad iudicium proferri debuisset, allate sunt littere regie, Robertum seysinam perdidisse omnium que habebat in Anglia & custodiam terrarum suarum traditam esse domino Ricardo fratri domini regis⁴.

45.

fol. 22^v.

De decimis de Newentone.

[1148-61.] Dilectis sibi in domino uniuersis sancte matris ecclesie filiis, frater Gillebertus Herefordensis ecclesie minister, salutem in Christo. Nouerit dilectio uestra delegatam nobis a domino & patre nostro Theobaldo Cantuariensi archiepiscopo causam inter abbatem Egneshamie & Alanum clericum de Sloctres⁵ super decimis domini de

¹ The king was at Southwick on May 9, 1206: he crossed to Normandy on June 1 (see Pref. to Pat. Rolls of John, ed. Hardy). In 1206 the abbot of Eynsham gave the king a palfrey that he might have the decision of a jury of Yarnton, whether two carucates of land in Yarnton were the lay fee of Thomas of St. Walery or belonged to the Abbey. (Rot. de fin., p. 345.)

² 'Drus' is meant, i. e. Count of Dreux.

³ Not in MS.

⁴ It is unnecessary to say that the history of the first part of this deed is desperate. Remigius died in the reign of William II.

⁵ Probably Slaughter in the east of Gloucestershire, two miles north of Bourton-on-the-water.

Newentone¹, quod est de feodo Rogerii de Oili, sub hoc tandem transactionis fine in presentia nostra apud Wigorniam fuisse terminatam. Memoratus Alanus in iamdictis decimis ius monasterii & conuentus Egneshamie publice recognoscens, easdem decimas sub annua pensione trium solidorum ab abbate & conuentu in posterum tenendas suscepit, ad monasterium Egnesham[nense] ipso decedente cum omni integritate deuoluendas. Quod quia in irritum nolumus, aut in dubium de cetero posse reuocari, presenti scripto uniuersitati uestre significare & sigilli nostri auctoritate confirmare curauimus. His testibus, Radulfo de Saucei, Willelmo de Sceldeslega, Reginaldo de Cudintone, Rogero de Cornwelle, Eilrico presbitero de Rollendrith, Hugone Crollebacun, Waltero de Hardepirer², Hugone clerico & multis aliis.

46.

De decimis unius hide in Wrtone.³

Bartholomeus dei gracia Exoniensis episcopus & I. Cicestrensis [1166-73.]
decanus omnibus fidelibus in Christo salutem. Nouerit uniuersitas uestra controuersiam que inter abbatem de Egnesham & Nicholaum clericum de Chersintona & abbatem de Oseneia diu uertebatur super decimis unius hide in Wrtone, que dominium eiusdem uille esse perhibetur, hoc modo in presentia nostra transactione esse decisam. Ecclesia siquidem Egnesham predictas decimas perpetuo tenebit reddendo inde singulis annis ecclesie de Oseneia duos solidos ad festum sancti Michaelis. Sic enim coram nobis, qui ex domini pape mandato causam illam cognoscendam terminandamque suscepimus, fide ex utraque parte interposita inter eos apud Niwebir[iam] transactum est. Testibus Simone abbate Sancti Albani, Roberto archidiacono Oxenefordie, N. archidiacono Huntend[onie], Ricardo thesaurario Regis, Iohanne de Sar[esbiria], N. priore de Walingeforde & R. priore de Keningewrd'.⁴

¹ Naunton, Gloucestershire. See 72 and 287.

² Hartpury in Gloucestershire is sometimes spelt Hardeperer: see the index to the Cartulary of St. Peter's, Gloucester (Rolls Series).

³ Worton in Cassington.

⁴ This deed occurs also in Cott. MS. Vitellius E. xv, f. 158, where the names of the last two witnesses are given in full, as 'Nicholas' and 'Robert' prior of 'Kenildewrd'. Simon was made abbot of St. Albans in 1166. Robert ceased to be archdeacon of Oxford in 1173. It appears from no. 20 that 'Nicholaus clericus de Chersintona' was Nicholas of Lewknor, afterwards vice-archdeacon. John of Salisbury is to be identified with one of that name who was treasurer of Exeter in 1174, not with John who became bishop of Chartres in 1170, and was in exile before that.

There must also have been a similar